The first offensive action of the Texas Revolution occurred in Goliad on October 9, 1835 when local colonists captured the fort and town. On December 20, 1835 the first Declaration of Texas Independence was signed in Goliad and the first flag of Texas Independence was hoisted.

The cornerstone for the Texas State Capitol building was laid on March 2, 1885, Texas Independence Day, and the building was opened to the public on April 21, 1888, San Jacinto Day.

You know you are from Texas when...

- If you consider anything under 10 hours an easy drive
- You can't help wondering if Nashville people know there's an Austin, bless their hearts
- You have a hard time explaining mums to out-of-staters
- Nothing signifies a change of the season like a Shiner seasonal brew
- H-E-B is your store for EVERYTHING
- And Hill Country Fare can hold its own against any brand-name product
- If a small town has only one chain restaurant, you can bet your boots it's a Dairy Queen
- You have seen your fair share of "secede" gear
- You know all about the Twelfth Man at A&M. Also "Howdy!" and "Gig 'em!"
- You know to run for cover when the sky turns green.
- You see more Texan flags than American Flags
- You attend a formal event in your best clothes, your finest jewelry, and your Cowboy Boots.
- You're disappointed when a food doesn't come in spicy flavor.
- Your Pastor wears boots
- You don't consider people from Austin to be real Texans

Fredric Baur, the creator of the Pringles can, had his ashes
placed in one when he died in 2008. His remains are in an original flavor can.

There is a sacredness in tears.
They are not the mark of weakness, but of power.
They speak more eloquently
than ten thousand tongues.
They are the messengers
of overwhelming grief,
of deep contrition, and
of unspeakable love.

~ Washington Irving

The Hertzberg Circus Museum in San Antonio contains one of the largest assortments of circusana in the world.

Now known as the Alamo, the Mission San Antonio de Valero was established in 1718. It has existed under five flags of independent nations and served as a garrison for five different armies. It is best known as the site of the 1836 Battle of the Alamo.

The Carmine State Bank has been robbed twice, once successfully, once unsuccessfully. On November 9, 1932, a man named Hamilton and his partner, O'Dair, robbed the bank of $1,000. Hamilton had been a member of the Clyde Barrow-Bonnie Parker gang. The money was never recovered.

Austin is considered the live music capital of the world. The city is home to more than 250 music venues ranging from small bars along Sixth Street to the Frank Erwin Center located on the campus of the University of Texas at Austin and Zilker Park.

I've traveled all over the world,
but I don't think there is any place better than Texas.

Flamin' Hot Cheetos were developed by a janitor at Frito-Lay, Richard Montanez, who got the idea after putting chili powder on some reject Cheetos and then pitched it to the CEO. He's now a successful executive and motivational speaker, and a movie is in the works about his life.

I'm sick of following
my dreams, man.
I'm just going to ask where they're going
and hook up
with 'em later.

You don't need a driver's license
to compete in NASCAR.

Technically, a state's driver's license is not needed to compete in NASCAR. Even drivers who have had their actual driver licenses suspended for everything from reckless driving to DUIs were still able to race in NASCAR.
